

	Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri
morning		Cybersecurity Conference and Matchmaking (with bug bounty event)		Special Session on National Cybersecurity Policy (with National Security Council, Ministry of Economic Affairs)	Seminar with Taiwan information Security Centre (TWISC)	Reserved for additional meeting
afternoon				visiting Cybersecurity Institute of the Institute for Information Industry (III)	Company Visit 1: Zyxel Technology (ICT Security)	Visiting Financial supervisory Committee
	Arrival Taiwan			Critical Infrastructure Protection Session (Seminar with CIIP related government agencies / companies)	Company Visit 2: Chung Hua Telecom	Debriefing
evening	briefing Session (NTIO)	Conference Dinner by Organizer			Networking dinner by IA-Taiwan	Departure

Dates: May 20-24

- Day 1+ 2 Monday May 20-21 (Full day Cybersecurity Conference, jointly organized with MOEA and USA)
 - Grand Opening by high level government official
 - Special Dutch Delegation Session
 - Matchmaking session
 - Organizer provide free optional booths or even Holland pavilion
- Day 3
 - Morning : Special session on National Cybersecurity Policy
 - To provide an overall picture of the national cybersecurity policy and opportunities
 - Collaboration with the National Security Council, presentations by various government agencies
 - Afternoon session 1: Visiting the cybersecurity Institute of III (https://web.iii.org.tw/About/Department.aspx?dp_sqno=7&fm_sqno=36)
 - III is a semi-governmental research thinktank specially for the information industry
 - III is responsible for/involved in the planning of the national Digitization Policy, Cybersecurity Policy and CIIP test bed
 - Afternoon Session 2: Critical Infrastructure Protection Session

- CIIP is one of the focused theme in the national cybersecurity policy and also opportunity for the Dutch companies
 - IA-Taiwan will invite government officials, state owned enterprises (for electricity, water, gas, etc) companies related to CIIP
- Day 4
 - Morning: Seminar with Taiwan Information Security Centre (TWISC) <https://www.twisc.org/about/>
 - TWISC is a consortium of cybersecurity departments / experts in Cybersecurity
 - Main activities of TWISC include International cooperation, Academic-industrial collaboration, Talent Training, Incubation, etc
 - Afternoon Program 1: Visiting Zyxel
 - Zyxel is a local ICT communication active in security
 - Afternoon program 2: Visiting Chung Hua Telecom and its subsidiary Chunghua Security (<https://www.chtsecurity.com/?lang=en>)
 - Largest telecom provider in Taiwan (State owned) and active in cybersecurity
- Day 5
 - Morning: reserved for additional meeting (can use the meeting room at NTIO)
 - Afternoon session 1: Visiting Financial Supervisory Committee
 - Afternoon Session 2 Debriefing

Note:

- Program for day 3-5 are fully flexible, current program will be suitable for most Cybersecurity companies
- If the Dutch participants are interested in certain topic, such as IoT security or Financial Security, IA-Taiwan will arrange relevant visits/ meetings accordingly
- IA-Taiwan would like to find a topic for potential Government to Government collaboration, such as collaboration with Japan on Olympics, the topic proposed by local partner is financial cybersecurity